Negro Pilot Case Reversed by High Court

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled unanimously today, in the case of a Negro seeking a job as an airline pilot, that the states may forbid discriminatory hiring practices by interstate carriers.

The decision set aside a ruling by the Colorado Supreme Court. This is the background of the case:

Marlon D. Green, 33, a former Air Force captain, in 1957 sought a job with Continental Air Lines Inc., Denver, Colo. The Negro said Continental in an examination found he was qualified but he was not given employment. White men who also were tested got jobs, Green related, although he had more flying experience.

Green complained to the Colorado Anti-discrimination Commission which ordered Continental to enroll Green at first opportunity in its next pilot-training class.

Colorado's Supreme Court overturned the state commission order, holding that the commission lacked authority over Continental because it is an interstate carrier. Green and the commission next appealed to the high tribunal.

The supreme court decision means the commission can proceed to enforce its order against the airline.

Green and his wife, reside now in Lansing, Mich. They have six children. Mrs. Green has been teaching in Lansing public schools.

Justice Black delivered the Supreme Court's opinion. He said the high court held "that the Colorado statute as applied here to prevent discrimination in hiring on account of race does not impose a constitutionally prohibited burden upon interstate commerce."

Week's Death Toll Low at 8

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A traffic accident claimed one life Sunday, putting the violent death toll for the state for the week ended midnight Sunday at 8. It was one of the lightest weeks in recent months.

Vernon Mead Sutherland, 29, of Crawfordville, was killed in the accident. A car in which he was riding ran off Richland Road about two miles north of Crawfordville, overturned and hit a culvert.

State Trooper Perry Porter said he believed the car was driven by Max Gossage, 19, also of Crawfordville.

Also during the week, traffic accidents claimed two other lives — one of them a pedestrian; one person was shot to death; one drowned; and two died when crushed by tractors which overturned.

Why Criticize State Police Only a Guess

PINE BLUFF, Ark. (AP) — Leading Arkansas Republicans could only guess Saturday as to why Gov. Orval E. Faubus criticized the operation of the State Police system.

The GOP members discussed Faubus' action at the 4th district Republican Workshop in Pine Bluff. State Republican Party chairman Bill Spicer of Fort Smith said the governor's part in the controversy was "a typical Faubus technique."

Party vice president Roy Mitchell of Hot Springs said "perhaps it was a whitewash."

"He may just have been letting them know he is still boss," said W. L. Jameson of Magnolia, a member of the 4th Congressional District Republican Committee. Mitchell said the controversy reflected on the integrity of every trooper.

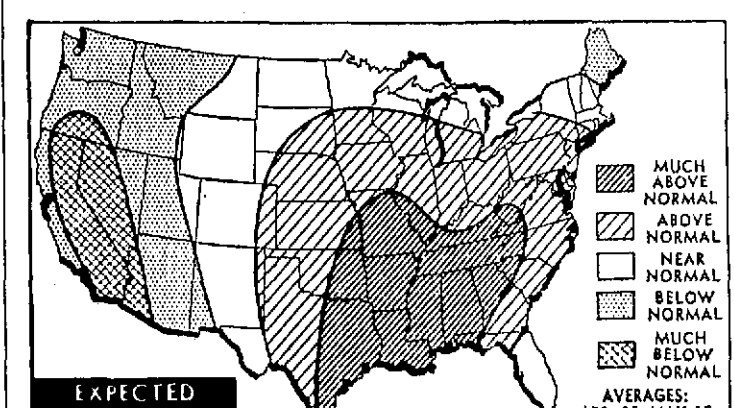

Faubus said Saturday he isn't sure a special session of the state legislature is a means of solving the financial difficulties of the State Police Department.

The governor didn't rule out a special session, but he said he hadn't checked out all the possibilities for providing money for the department. Faubus told the State Police Commission last week that he will accept the responsibility of finding funds for the department if it runs out of money in November, as the department believes it will.

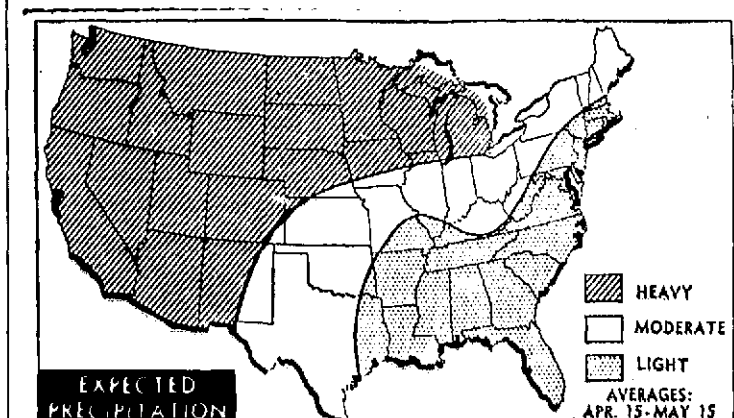

W. D. Evans, 87, of McNab, Dies

William Dennis Evans, aged 87, a resident of McNab and a retired farmer, died Friday in a Nashville hospital. He was a member of the Mineral Springs Masonic Lodge and a Presbyterian.

Survivors include three sons, Leo of McNab, Walter of Minneapolis, Minn., Charles D. David of Murfreesboro; two daughters, Mrs. B. P. Wade of Orange, Texas; Mrs. James K. Freeman of Shreveport; two brothers, Alfred J. of Lincoln, Mo., Leonard of Lockesburg; a stepbrother, Steve Wright of Desert Hot Springs, Calif.; three stepdaughters, Mrs. Tom Porter of Lockesburg, Mrs. S. D. Tyndall, Ashdown and Mrs. R. M. Harbroke of Ashland, Oregon. Services were held Saturday at Mineral Spring Methodist Church by the Rev. Joe Jones, Rev. W. C. Lewis. Burial by Latimer Sedices was at Mineral Springs.

It's a chill prospect for the far West and Maine through mid-May. Elsewhere, look for warmer weather.

Half-and-half is precipitation outlook until mid-May. Wetter in West; near or below normal, East.

The Coronation Banquet is a highlight of the Arkansas Poultry Festival to be held in Little Rock, June 13 and 14. Miss Rosemary Clooney is guest star for this event.

Skies Partly Cloudy Over Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Skies were generally partly cloudy to cloudy over Arkansas today and the weather was warm and windy.

Scattered thundershowers were predicted for northwest Arkansas this afternoon and were expected to move over the rest of the state tonight.

Cooler weather was in prospect for tonight and Tuesday.

Gusty, southwesterly winds were clocked at 15 to 30 miles an hour over most of the state this morning. They were expected to shift to northerly in the northwest this evening and then diminish.

Highs of 82 to 92 were predicted for this afternoon. Lows tonight were expected to range from 44 to 54 northwest and 54 to 60 southwest.

Temperatures during the next five days were expected to average four to six degrees below the normal highs of 68 north to 80 south and the normal lows of 48 north to 56 south.

Precipitation during the period was expected to total two-tenths to four-tenths north and up to three-quarters of an inch south from thundershowers tonight and again in the southern portion near the end of the week.

Overnight lows reported around the state this morning were generally in the high 60s and low 70s. A trace of rain was reported at Texarkana during the 24-hour period ending at 6 a.m.

SAO PAULO, Brazil (AP) — The United States suffered another sharp reversal in the Pan-American Games today when Frank Froehling, its chief hope for the tennis championship, lost to a little-known Mexican.

The gangling Davis Cup ace from San Antonio, Tex., went down before unranked Juan Arrendondo 6-3, 8-6, 6-2.

Froehling's teammate, Allen Fox of Los Angeles, advanced with a 6-4, 6-4, 6-0 triumph over Vincente Zarazua of Mexico, but this could not assuage the disappointment over the loss of Froehling.

The opening day's competition Sunday brought the United States a staggering surprise.

Folk Singing Festival Was Very Rousing

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Ark. (AP) — The first Arkansas Folk Festival is over.

The last notes — gospel folk songs — were sung Sunday, after two nights of rousing folk singing. The festival, conceived by Jimmy Driftwood, the Stone County boy who made it to the top of the country music charts, attracted several thousand persons from Arkansas and surrounding states.

Some 40 fiddlers, yodelers, guitar strummers and banjo pickers held forth for crowds ranging up to 2,500 persons.

The event was sponsored by the Backsack Folklore Society, also a Driftwood creation. It now has about 60 members. Backsack is the old name for the Arkansas river, and a name which formerly was applied to the mountainous area in Arkansas.

Driftwood, of Timbo, made the music big-time with "The Battle of New Orleans."

Most of the talent was home-grown, and none of the performers were paid. The population of Mountain View (963) swelled into the thousands as visitors flocked to the festival.

When the performers had sung themselves hoarse the audience took over and the singing continued into the wee hours Friday and Saturday nights.

Among the featured performers were: "The Fiddling House of Morrison." Stone County treasurer Willie Morrison, self-styled leader of the group, said more than 25 persons in his family play the fiddle.

The festival's oldest performers were Abby Morrison of Jonesboro and Abbie Morrison of the Landis community — members of the "Fiddling House" — and the oldest performers at 86.

Youngest were a couple of three-year-old boys who sang a duet.

Nikita Places German Issue Over Ban Talks

By The Associated Press

MILAN, Italy, (AP) — Soviet Premier Khrushchev warned today that settlement of the problem of divided Germany, and especially Berlin, must take precedence over disarmament and other burning world issues.

Only if this East-West question is solved, he told the newspaper Il Giorno, would others fall into place.

Khrushchev blamed the United States for everything going wrong, and especially the deadlocked disarmament negotiations.

If the United States would just accept the Soviets' word without insisting on inspections, the premier said, an agreement to end nuclear tests could easily be negotiated.

He also repeated the Soviet threat, made before at Geneva, to withdraw its offer of two or three nuclear inspections a year if the United States continued to insist on seven or eight.

He himself, said Khrushchev, did not believe in God, but those who did — obviously meaning President Kennedy — had the moral duty not to build nuclear weapons.

The Soviet chieftain denounced the stationing of nuclear submarines to the Mediterranean, "almost under the walls of the Vatican," despite the peace pleas of Pope John XXIII.

He claimed the subs and the U.S. insistence on sending nuclear warheads to Canada were intended to divert any Soviet reprisals from the United States to its allies.

Khrushchev's giving an interview to an Italian newsmagazine was considered strategically timed to affect the Italian parliamentary elections next Sunday. Il Giorno is owned by the state oil company and supports Pietro Nenni's left-wing Socialists.

In Washington, U.S. officials said they found nothing particularly new in Khrushchev's statements. The last foreign newsmagazine to interview him was Canadian publisher Roy Thomson on Feb. 9.

On what he considered the key question of world peace, Khrushchev said: "The tension in the center of Europe can not be eliminated without the conclusion of a German peace treaty and the normalization on this basis of the situation."

Brush Fires Take a Toll Across U.S.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A weekend of raging brush fires and building blazes took at least six lives, left many hundreds homeless and caused millions of dollars worth of damage in the bone-dry eastern area of the country.

The Weather Bureau in New York said the first substantial rain in the stricken area is expected in Pennsylvania and Maryland tonight.

Showers were forecast for today in parts of Pennsylvania, Connecticut, upper New York State and Virginia.

Three members of a New Jersey family were missing. Police said they may have been burned to death when a forest fire engulfed their home.

Emergency crews moved from one scared spot to another to restore electricity, telephone service and water supplies.

Emergency shelters were provided for many families. Others were taken in by relatives and friends.

From Maine to Virginia, thousands of firemen fought blazes. Most of the fires were reported extinguished or under control today.

More than 350 homes were destroyed or badly damaged and about 300,000 acres were blackened in raging brush fires, whipped by high winds, on New York City's Staten Island and in New Jersey.

Ten square miles of Staten Island were burned over. The greatest devastation in New Jersey was in the southern part of the state.

Bernard Bartlett, assistant state fire warden in New Jersey, called the fires "the worst I can remember in the 30 years I've been with the fire warden's office."

In addition to the New York-New Jersey areas, the worst fire damage Saturday was in the Baltimore, Md.; Biddeford, Maine; and King George County, Va., areas.

In western and central Pennsylvania, new forest fires broke out Sunday.

U.S. Considers Returning Thailand Troops

WASHINGTON (AP) — High-ranking U.S. authorities said today there is a possibility U.S. troops might be sent back to Thailand because of the Red threat in neighboring Laos. But they did not predict this would happen.

They spoke of the serious situation there as President Kennedy met during the morning with the National Security Council to discuss Laos. White House press secretary Pierre Salinger said he did not expect any announcement afterward.

The authorities would not speculate on just what U.S. military moves might be taken, although conceding that U.S. troops could be returned to the strife-torn Southeast Asian monarchy.

They noted that the United States has considerable power in the Southeast Asia area. They said they do not want to talk, for instance, about the possibility that the U.S. 7th Fleet might be sent to Indochina waters in a show of force.

So far the U. S. emphasis has been on diplomatic moves to keep the Communists from toppling the Laos coalition government headed by neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma.

The United States dispatched several thousand troops to Thailand when the Reds threatened to overrun Laos last year. The American forces were eventually withdrawn.

U. S. authorities gave this picture of the Laotian situation today:

The three-nation International Control Commission supposed to police a cease-fire in Laos will probably be able to get some representatives to the Plaine des Jarres trouble area, though it appears they will be stationed only with the neutralist forces, not the Red Pathet Lao.

The so-called fighting in Laos has been less severe than some reports indicated. The action has been more in maneuver, troop movements and artillery fire than in combat.

If the Geneva agreement for a neutral independent Laos free of outside interference breaks down, there is a fair chance that the non-Communists in Laos will be in a stronger position than before the Geneva pact went into effect last year.

This is because the neutralists and rightists in Laos have drawn closer together in the face of Communist violations.

Laos is important to the security of the West in the sense that if the Communists gained control of it, and exploited their control, they would threaten the rest of Southeast Asia. And if Southeast Asia fell, the Red influence would expand to Indonesia and cut the non-Communist world in two.

Today's Security Council meeting was the second in three days on Laos.

By ANTOINE YARED

VIETNAMESE, Laos (AP) — With a new cease-fire promise from the Pathet Lao, neutralist Premier Souvanna Phouma says "all hopes are not lost to restore peace" in northern Laos.

Souvanna appeared doubtful, however, that the latest stop-gap arrangement will work any better than last week's cease-fire. It was broken within hours.

Souvanna reported after a flying visit to the Pathet Lao headquarters of his half-brother, Prince Souphanouvong, that the pro-Communist command agreed to halt its drive against the Plaine des Jarres until after the premier returns to the area in a day or so.

Charles Wins Houston Golf Classic

By MAX B. SKELTON

sors of the $50,000 Houston Golf Classic were searching for a formula to prevent a fifth straight playoff and they found one in the form of Bob Charles, a left-hander from New Zealand.

Charles, 27, not only halted the Classic's playoff habit but he won the $10,000 in top money with a 72-hole record 268. He also became the first left-hander to win a PGA-sponsored tournament.

The New Zealander—11 under par and three strokes in front after the first three rounds—needed a one-under 69 final round Sunday to turn back thrilling challenges from Fred Hawkins, a veteran pro, and amateur Homero Blancas, the son of a greenskeeper at Houston's exclusive River Oaks Country Club.

As Jack Nicklaus, a 5-1 pre-tournament favorite, faltered with a rash of bogies, Hawkins picked up three strokes on Charles with a final round 66 and a 269 that was worth $4,600. Blancas, who shot a 302 in the 1963 Masters, had seven birdies while taking a 64 and a third-place 270.

Charles, the New Zealand bank clerk, was seeking his first PGA tournament title.

Nicklaus, the new Masters champion, had to settle for a 71 and $3,000 for a fourth-place 273 after posting three bogies and three birdies on the front nine and two bogies and one birdie on the final nine.

Gary Player, who also held 5-1 odds Thursday with Nicklaus, came back with a fourth-round 67 and a 263 for $400, his lowest finish and money take of the year.

"And without tranquility in Europe there will not be tranquility in the world."

"The question arises: either a search for agreed solutions and development of international relations towards an effective reinforcement of peace or an ever increasing international tension that could turn into thermonuclear war."

He said the easing of the Cuban crisis had not led to an easing of the cold war. He blamed this on America.

"In the United States," he claimed, "there are forces which continue the old policy of 'from a position of strength.'"

"Such a policy cannot lead to relaxation of tension or to improvement in the international situation. The unrestrained campaign staged by the angry men in the United States and launched against a sovereign state, Cuba, and the support offered by certain American circles to maritime robbery and to piracy in the Caribbean Sea are in fact the manifestations of this policy."

Speaking of his troubles with Communist China, Khrushchev said that the current debate between Moscow and Peking was completely an internal affair and would only lead to a strengthening of relations.

Turning to disarmament, Khrushchev said:

"The biggest efforts undertaken by the United States and its allies in NATO are not aimed at concluding a treaty on general and complete disarmament but in intensifying the armament race and creating an aggressive NATO nuclear force."

"Only in this way can one explain why the committee of 18 is practically stalled in Geneva and has, up to now, not approved any decision leading to conclusion of a program for complete and general disarmament."

He insisted that the Soviet Union had accepted a Western quota of two or three inspections a year to control a test ban. He claimed that the United States then "advanced again the request that eight to ten inspections a year be made although previously responsible representatives of the United States in talks with Soviet representatives declared they could accept two to four inspections a year."

to resume peace efforts.
The premier said Gen. Kong Le, commander of the beleaguered neutralist force, also was ordered to observe a temporary cease-fire.

In the past week, the Pathet Lao has bottled up the neutralist forces on the Plain des Jarres after forcing them out of the several positions they held outside the city. There has been fear that the rightist army under Gen. Phoumi Nosavan might step in and try to block the Pathet Lao advance, plunging Laos into another civil war.

In Washington, President Kennedy planned a meeting with the National Security Council to discuss ways to preserve the neutrality of Laos. There have been suggestions that the U.S. 7th Fleet, now on duty in the western Pacific, might be sent into the Gulf of Siam as a show of strength.
The Red pressure on the South-east Asian kingdom sent U.S. Undersecretary of State W. Averell Harriman to Europe Sunday on a save-Laos mission.

DOROTHY DIX

HUSBAND: BIGAMIST;

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: My husband is in jail for bigamy. The whole wretched experience was so sordid I'm ashamed to discuss it to you.

Not until I had borne him three children did another wife come storming into our home one evening, shouting that her lawyer and a police officer were waiting to take him to jail. I couldn't believe my ears for he had been a model husband and father. When he admitted the truth in court I was filled with revulsion for all men.

Being penniless, I went back to work. Luckily I'd had been a private secretary before I married. My mother and sister cared for the kids during the day. I had them at night. It was a dreary treadmill; up at six, dress the children and myself, cook breakfast, leave them at Mama's and heat it for work. When I left the office I'd hurry to the store for last minute shopping, pick up the children, go home, get dinner, put them to bed and wander around the apartment lonely as hell.

Then I met this man. Who worked in the same building but soon after lost his job. I bought him clothes, gave him money and myself. Our daughter is the living image of him.

The status of my marriage to the bigamist is still in the hands of the court; not that it mattered for the other man didn't want marriage.

My family forced me to institute a paternity suit against him. When I heard my lover sentenced to a year in prison I almost went crazy, begged the judge to show mercy. Finally I got bail money together then had to pay the lawyer and the sheriff to get my man. I was so happy to have him with me. He said he cared as much for me as I did for him and wanted to marry me once I was free.

That was a week ago. I haven't seen him since. I'm attractive and have been a good wife and mother. Never have I ever loved anyone as much as I do this man. What's wrong with me? — Lovesick

Dear Lovesick: That's just what you are: love sick. Pull yourself together. Your children, not you, are to be pitied.

Either retain a lawyer or apply to the local Domestic Relations Court for help in cutting the ties with your bigamist husband. Once that is settled, the other man may show up again. From your account, "kept man" might be a more accurate term. Only a heel would let you buy him clothes, take your money and drag your reputation in the mud. Sex, not love, has trapped you.

Once you stop thinking of self, you've taken a step in the right direction. See this recent sordid experience as a temporary aberration. Ask your doctor, or the local hospital to recommend a competent psychiatrist.

Dear Helen: I am an arm-chair globe trotter who is realizing the dream of a life-time: a trip to Europe. But there's one small cloud. I am reluctant to travel alone, never having taken a long journey before and being middle-aged. Surely many women feel as I do. How to get in touch with them is the problem. Have you any suggestions? — Mrs. Columbus

Dear Mrs. Columbus: Take the first plunge with a covey of ladies shepherded by an experienced leader. There are many such groups. Check with your local agent.

Dear Helen: There is a boy who phones me every day. Never having dated him I am not interested. In fact he gets on my nerves with his constant calling. How can I discourage him? — Miss R.

Dear Miss: There are plenty of ways to discourage him if you really want to. Ask your mother to say you're studying; or speak with him yourself. Simply say that what with school, homework and other things, you're too busy to talk, then with a pleasant goodbye, hangup. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope for my leaflet, "Manners and Young People."

Have you a problem? Perhaps Helen Worden Erskine can help you. Write her in care of this newspaper, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

More Get Freedom From Castro

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—A score or more Americans held prisoner by the Fidel Castro regime have been promised freedom today and a plane trip to the United States.

James B. Donovan, New York attorney who has been active in Cuban prisoner negotiations for months, announced Sunday that the Castro government agreed to release all Americans in its jails.

Between 20 and 27 Americans are believed to be affected. Many have been prisoners for more than three years. Most were charged with counterrevolutionary activity.

Donovan said he would return with the Americans aboard a Pan American Airways plane assigned to carry about 24,000 pounds of medicines and other ransom goods to Cuba.

Donovan announced also that another 1,000 refugees will be allowed to leave Cuba this week; aboard the ransom ship American Surveyor, possibly on Friday.

Donovan called release of the Americans "an action of clemency on the part of the Cuban government" and indicated this may be his last mercy mission to Castro's island.

"It does not involve any further pledges of drugs, medicines or baby food to the Cuban people," Donovan said.

Donovan flew to Havana Saturday aboard a DC6 airliner chartered by the American Red Cross. The plane carried 15,400 pounds of ransom food and drugs promised Castro when he released the 1,113 Bay of Pigs invasion prisoners last December.

Donovan said that in addition to the American prisoners and the 1,000 refugees being brought to Florida this week, other releases may follow.

"Highly inaccurate and distorted," the State Department said of Jose Miro Cardona's accusations—repeating what it said Monday night when some of the Cuban's charges were first reported—and then the administration lapsed into frigid silence.

From the President down, Washington officials are represented as determined not to engage in a running fight with Miro, who quit as president of the Cuban Revolutionary Council Thursday night as he issued his 6,500 word statement.

Evidently the reason for this administration tactic is that the chief power available to Miro is derived from whatever ability he

Leaders in Hot Springs Fish Derby

HOT SPRINGS, Ark. (AP) — Leads in four divisions changed hands Sunday as the Hot Springs Fishing Derby came to an end.

G. W. Johnson of Jesselville pulled in a 2 pound, 7 1/4 ounce crappie to get the top spot in the division and Marguerite Brenner of Stillwell, Kan., caught a 2 pound, 5 3/4 ounce crappie for tops among the out-of-stater anglers in that division.

Pete Bles of Mountain Pine took the small mouth bass lead with a 3 pound, 10 1/2 ounce catch and Roger West of Los Angeles, Calif., took first among the visitors with a 2 pound, 13 1/4 ounce smallmouth.

has to stir up domestic discontent with Kennedy's Cuban policies.

The only detailed official response to Miro's charges came in the statement by the State Department last Monday night after some of the charges had come out of Miami. The Cuban leader's full statement was not made public until Thursday.

The White House said there would be nothing beyond that.

Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield said "President Kennedy has not abandoned Cuba and does not intend to."

Several senators who have been vocal both in criticism and defense of U.S. policies on Cuba declined immediate comments. They said they first wanted to study Miro's statements.

Nike Zeus Test Is Successful

WHITE SANDS MISSILE RANGE, N.M. (AP)—The Army successfully fired a Nike Zeus Thursday night from an underground cell at the White Sands range.

Other winners included: Largemouth bass — Kenneth Rusher, Jones Mills, 7 pounds, 2 3/4 ounces; Allen Pierce, Denton, Tex., 6 pounds, 15 ounces.

White bass—Tommy Otwell Hot Springs, 3 pounds, 13 ounces; John Sherman, Jericho, N.Y., 2 pounds, 13 1/2 ounces.

Bream—(aggregate of 10) Charlie Groves Hot Springs, 6 pounds, 5 3/4 ounces; Hoyle Houser Jr., Little Rock, 9 pounds, one ounce.

The Visitors Division included anglers outside the Garland Hot Springs county area.

Officials of the derby estimated that about 6,000 persons took in the derby in some form or fashion Sunday—the biggest turnout of the five-day fishing derby. An estimated 18,500 persons were on hand for the entire show.

DAR Scholarship Is Announced

WASHINGTON (AP) — Kathleen Barden, 18, of Little Rock, won the Daughters of the American Revolution's national Good Citizenship award and a $1,000 scholarship Thursday.

The award to Miss Barden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Barden, Little Rock, was announced at the 72nd Congress of the DAR in Washington.

Radar Traffic Gadget for Sale

LEON VALLEY, Tex. (AP) — A $985 radar traffic gadget is for sale, and Leon Valley Mayor R. C. Adair says it's cheap.

Adair and four fellow councilmen won election April 2 in the small South Texas town northwest of San Antonio.

"They campaigned on a pledge to abolish a speed trap set for motorists. As soon as the new councilmen took office they replaced the three-man police force and hired a new town marshal. Everybody in the country is griping about radar," Adair said Thursday. "We're getting rid of ours."

He added that traffic still will be controlled, because Leon Valley straddles

Mets Acting Like a Team After a Flag

By JIM BECKER

Associated Press Sports Writer
Said Casey Stengel to the Milwaukee Braves:

"You know that trade we were talking about, the one for the fellow who plays in center field for me, who everytime you saw him this spring he was hitting the ball over the houses back of the palm trees in left field and you wanted to give me your catcher for him? Well, forget it."

So the Braves can forget about Jim Hickman—if they can. That will take some forgetting. Hickman drove in seven runs with a 450-foot double and two homers, one a grand slam, as the Mets won a doubleheader from the Braves Sunday 8-5 and 9-2. The double win gave the Mets four straight for the first time in their history, and lifted them out of the National League cellar for the first time since last May 23.

The San Francisco Giants held on to the top spot with a split against the Chicago Cubs. The Cubs won the opener 4-1 and the Giants the second game 3-2.

In other National League games St. Louis split with Philadelphia, losing 4-3 and winning 10-5, the Los Angeles Dodgers whipped Houston twice, 11-3 and 6-5, and Cincinnati trampled Pittsburgh 8-3.

In the American League, Baltimore held on to its half game edge by splitting with Cleveland, winning 7-0 and losing 2-0. Detroit beat Boston 5-2, Los Angeles beat Kansas City 6-2, Minnesota shut out Chicago 7-0 and lost the second game 8-0, and the New York Yankees edged the Washington Senators 7-6.

Hickman's grand slam won the first game for the Mets. He hit it in the eighth inning off Claude Raymond, with the Mets trailing 5-4.

Willie Mays, Willie McCovey each hit their fourth home runs for the Giants in the second game, and Tom Haller's single drove home the winning run.

Tony Gonzalez doubled off the scoreboard in the 10th inning to drive in the winning run for the Phillies in the opener against the Cards.

In the second game, the Cards spotted the Phillies four runs in the first inning and then roared back against Art Mahaffey, with Dick Groat driving in four runs.

Ron Fairly carried the big bat for the Dodgers against the Colts. He drove in three runs in the opener, hit a two-run homer in the fourth inning of the second game, and then broke a 5-5 tie in the last of the ninth with a bases-loaded single.

Bob Miller, who was 1-12 as a Met last season, ran his unscored on streak to 21 2-3 innings for the Dodgers in the opener before he was chased in the sixth. However, he got the victory, his first of the season.

Cincinnati scored all its runs in the first four innings, with Leo Cadenas and Vada Pinson driving in two each. Jim Maloney gave up 12 hits but was tough when it mattered, and got his second win.

Travelers Resting in First Place

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Strange things are happening in the International League—and the Arkansas Travelers are causing some of them.

Toronto, the 1962 league runner-up, was supposed to start 1963 as one of the two strongest entries in the reorganized Class AAA circuit.

But Monday the skidding Maple Leafs were the cellar club in the Northern Division—and Arkansas is on top in the Southern Division. The Travelers dropped one game, 8-1, to Toronto Sunday, then took the nightcap 5-2.

Stranger still, Jacksonville, the 1962 champion, is the cellar club in the Southern Division. Syracuse, the Northern Division leader, stretched its winning streak to five games by handing Jacksonville its fifth consecutive defeat 9-4 in a single game Sunday.

The Travelers took the Southern Division lead when Atlanta dropped a doubleheader to Rochester 1-0 and 9-1.

In other games, Buffalo swept Indianapolis 5-4 in 10 innings and 7-4, and Columbus shaded Richmond 4-3 and a split of their doubleheader after the Virginians won the opener 16-2.

Rochester continued to get superb pitching in the Atlanta sweep. John Miller blanked the Crackers on four hits in the opener, and Ed Hobaugh spaced seven blows effectively in the second game. Since losing two in a row to Arkansas at the start of the season, the Red Wings have surrendered only two runs in capturing four straight from Jacksonville and Atlanta.

Don Wert and Ray Oyler slugged two homers each to subdue Jacksonville for the Syracuse Chiefs.

Toronto catcher Rico Carty hit two homers during one turn at bat in the Leafs' first game triumph over Arkansas. With Steve Demeter on base, Carty drove one out of the park in the second inning, but the umpire ruled that Arkansas catcher Al Kenders had called time before the pitch. The next delivery was legal and so was Carty's second fence-clearing drive.

A two-run homer by Bobby Malkmus gave Arkansas a split on a five-hitter by right-hander Gary Kroll. Carl Greene hurled a six-hitter for Toronto in the opener and contributed three singles to the Leafs' 14-hit attack on four Traveler pitchers.

Buffalo belted five home runs while taking two decisions from Indianapolis.

Richmond scored nine runs in the first inning of its one-sided conquest of Columbus in the first game.

Aquirre Wins Game No. 3 for Tigers

By JACK HAND

Associated Press Sports Writer

If any critics still think Hank Aquirre was a flash in the pan last year when he led the American League pitchers, they are referred to the latest batch of statistics.

Aquirre, the new Yankee killer of the Detroit Tigers, has started three games, won three games and pitched three complete games. His earned run average unofficially is 1.67, better than his leading 2.21 of last year.

Aquirre gave up eight hits and fanned seven, running his season's strikeout total to 20 with a 5-2 victory Sunday over Boston.

Baltimore traded shutouts with Cleveland and remained a half game ahead of the pack in the American League. Steve Barber blanked the Indian with four hits, 7-0, striking out 11 and Dick Donovan retaliated with a four-hitter 2-0 against the Orioles.

It was the same story in Chicago where Minnesota's Jim Roland, a 20-year-old rookie southpaw making his first start, shut out the White Sox 7-0 with three singles. Then the Sox's John Buzhardt came right back with a four-hitter, 8-0.

Jim Bouton came to the rescue of Ralph Terry in the second inning and pitched the New York Yankees to a 7-6 edge over Washington. Leon Wagner's three-run homer enabled Los Angeles to best Kansas City 6-2.

In the National League the New York Mets swept two from Milwaukee 8-5 and 9-2, Cincinnati downed Pittsburgh 8-3, Chicago upended San Francisco 4-1 but the Giants bounced back for a split 3-2. Philadelphia nosed out St. Louis 4-3 in 10 innings only to have the Cards slug their way to a 10-5 margin in the second. Los Angeles whipped Houston 11-3 and 6-5.

Aquirre was Manager Bob Scheffing's last hope in Boston where the Tigers had dropped three in a row after sweeping two from the Yanks. A three-run homer by Norm Cash off Bill Monbouquette, a 420-foot drive into the right field bleachers, was the big blow. Bob Tillman homered for Boston.

Baltimore racked up bonus baby Sam McDowell in the first inning while Barber coasted home with his third victory. Then Donovan, making his first start in 10 days, cooled off the Birds and snapped their four-game winning streak by beating Robin Roberts.

Bouton had some shaky moments for the Yanks but retired the last nine batters in succession for his first victory. Terry was slammed for five hits and four runs in 12-3 innings. Tom Tresh homered for the Yanks.

Roland's success gave the Twins yet another left-hander on a staff that already is lopsided on the port side. He gave up two singles in the first inning, walked nine but struck out seven. Bob Allison

Celtics Still Lead Lakers in Playoff

By BOB SALMON

Associated Press Sports Writer

BOSTON (AP) — "We're still very much alive."

Those words came from a very happy man—Los Angeles Lakers Coach Fred Schaus—but they had an ominous tone. Schaus was happy, all right, but he was already looking ahead to Wednesday night when the Lakers entertain the Boston Celtics at Los Angeles, anxious to square their National Basketball Association championship series.

"We knew we had to win one here in Boston and we did it," Schaus said. "Now we've got the victory and we're still in this game."

The 126-119 victory was even more timely considering that the Lakers had lost 12 consecutive road games going back to Feb. 13 of this year.

The Celtics, thwarted at a fifth straight title, still lead — three games to two—in the best-of-7 series. The seventh game, if needed, is scheduled for Boston Saturday night.

"We won't need it," growled Celtics Coach Red Auerbach in a cemetery-like Boston dressing room after Sunday night's game. "We're just going to need the one game to win this."

The game nearly ended in a melee at Boston Garden as fans, accustomed to seeing Boston clutch encounters, tried to take out their wrath on officials Dick Powers and Mendy Rudolph.

One spectator was arrested for attempting to get at Powers late in the game and then allegedly striking a policeman. Several other fans tried to charge the officials as they left the court after the game but were held off by police.

Never has a team come back from a 1-3 game deficit to win the NBA championship. But apparently Los Angeles' Elgin Baylor and Jerry West were not aware of this fact. They combined for a powerful one-two punch to lead the Lakers back from the brink of elimination.

Baylor, playing his heart out in the final period, came up with 43 points in the game for the individual high for the series. West had 32 points.

Fourth Pan American Games Open

By JERRY LISKA

SAO PAULO, Brazil (P)—The fourth Pan American Games, scarcely under way, left the big United States squad jolted by a few surprises today.

Although swimmers splashed to two Pan Am records and Uncle Sam's basketball team scored a walkway 93-65 opening triumph over Puerto Rico, Cuba's baseball team clobbered the Yankees, 13-1 Sunday.

Additionally, the United States' four-member tennis team found itself outnumbered by host Brazil and Mexico in some sort of organizational blunder.

The games moved into their third day of competition with 10 other sports already under way. The prime sport of the 23 listed competitions, track and field, does not start until Saturday.

In Sunday's first real burst of activity six medals symbolic of championships were awarded. Three went to the Yanks.

The U.S.A. and Brazil each grabbed two of the four judo titles at stake. The bantamweight crown went to British Guiana.

Defending featherweight lifting champion, Isaac Berger of York, Pa., repeated with a record-breaking total lift of 792.50 pounds.

In the first athletic contest between Cuba and the United States since the Castro regime began, the U.S.A. baseball forces were humiliated by the Cubans.

As the United States qualified all eight of its swimming entries in events tested Sunday, Chet Jastremski and Steve Clark shattered Pan Am records. Jastremski, world breast stroke record holder at 2 minutes, 29.6 seconds for 200 meters, splashed to a heat victory in 2:37.4 for one meet mark.

Clark, 19, came up with a 54.7 meet record clocking in his 100 meter free style heat.
